

CIC Bulletin

News from the DC Corrections Information Council

Message from the Executive Director

On Thursday, August 8, the CIC will host a screening of the agency's documentary "IRAA: Creating Hope" at the MLK Jr. Memorial Library. Prior to the screening, the CIC will facilitate a panel discussion on the lasting impact of the IRAA legislation. We encourage members of the community to attend. Visit the event page here to RSVP.

CIC staff met with members from the Pennsylvania Prison Society, the John Howard Association, and the Indiana Correctional Ombudsman Office to discuss data and record management. The CIC looks forward to continued information exchanges with industry experts and local service providers regarding best practices and available resources

On July 12, 2024, the CIC conducted the quarterly inspection of the Central Detention Facility (CDF). The CIC toured the facility and interviewed residents and staff. A report on the CIC's findings and recommendations is forthcoming. The agency's most recent reports on the Bureau of Prisons can be found here.

This month, the CIC welcomed two summer interns. Loryn Wong, an undergraduate at Hofstra University, and Arion Dorsey, an undergraduate at West Chester University, will be with the agency for the month of July to learn about correctional oversight and conditions of confinement. We thank them for their interest and commitment to CIC efforts and initiatives.

-Donald Isaac

How Money Bail Crushes America's Poor & Inflates The World's Largest Prison State

Bryce Covert, Peter Goldberg, Sam Brooke, and Terrence Bogans

More than 400,000 people toil in U.S. jails annually because they can't pay bail. So why in the "Land of the Free" does freedom come at a debilitating cost? How Money Bail Crushes America's Poor & Inflates The World's Largest Prison State is a podcast that explores the political nature of the United States' private bail industry and its impact on residents in custody and returning citizens alike.
